Chapter 1 by Evangelionbladeofthefuture

chapter 1

It was in the 45678 ac when humans discovers a mysterious dark hole in space that was purple a color that most dark holes usually dose not have. So they sent probes to explore it and when the probes went through they found a whole new world like earth but it was much more lush and and green then any planet they have ever seen. Because earth was reaching its limit because the sun was getting to hot for the living things on earth to survive. So they sent a convoy of some enthusiastic astronauts to find out if humans could survive on it.
